New Book: A First-Century View of Yeshua, the Messiah: "How the Jewish mouse ate the Greco-Roman elephant"

The book A First-Century View of Yeshua, the Messiah by Dr. Robert D. Hosken is now published on Amazon! From the Epigraph:

How did we get here? Our understanding of Yeshua, the Messiah, is filtered through centuries of retelling, revising, and projecting our current worldview back twenty centuries ago, resulting in layers of anachronisms.

What went wrong? Why do we see so much animosity between Christians and Jews? Originally, the followers of Yeshua were just considered another sect of Judaism, along with Herodians, Sadducees, Pharisees, Essenes, and Zealots. The animosity arose mainly in the fifth century C.E. in the writings of Jerome and Augustine, as you will see in the conclusion of this book. And where do we go from here?

Get it at www.Amazon.com/dp/B0CTFT9DMQ as a Kindle eBook for $7.99, or for $0 if you subscribe to Kindle Unlimited. You can roll over the cover to zoom in, or press

“Read sample” on this Amazon page to see the first few pages. You can also search for the book by title at Amazon.

Or get it as a paperback from Amazon for $15.99. If you get either the Amazon eBook or the paperback and like it, please be sure to write a nice review on the book’s Amazon page: this helps the author a lot!

Both Amazon versions have the footnotes at the back of the book, instead of at the bottom of the screen in my online version. Other than that, the versions are virtually identical. You can still read it online at www.Agape-Biblia.org/First-Century-View.htm – the Amazon versions have this same link on the title page, so people can read it online.

Here’s the QR code for the book’s Amazon page: please share it! And get a free sample of the eBook too!
